BEST PRACTICES FOR RUNNING A SUCCESSFUL CAMPAIGN

BEFORE YOUR CAMPAIGN	DURING YOUR CAMPAIGN
Meet with a United Way staff member to create a plan of action. Call 605.692.4979 to set up your appointment.	Hold employee group meetings. (See "The 20- Minute Group Meeting.")
Meet with your CEO or management team to establish goals and dates and to determine how you will involve them in the campaign. If your organization has a union partner, include a representative in the planning process.	 Run a special solicitation for current or prospective leadership donors (those who do of might consider giving $1,000 or more per year) Share campaign information and progress in newsletters, intranet and email.
Recruit a strong campaign team, "ambassadors" representing a wide range of employees, for	Use posters, table tents and other items to advertise the campaign.
help and support. Ask a member of senior management to chair your leadership giving efforts.	Follow up with anyone who has not turned in a pledge form. Ask everyone to return a pledge form whether they are contributing or not.
Review last year's campaign results, strategies, and reccomendations.	AFTER YOUR CAMPAIGN
Develop strategies, a timeline, and goals for this year's campaign.	Complete the contribution report envelope ar return to United Way.
Visit BrookingsUnitedWay.org to arrange a speaker, customize materials, and more! Please arrange all materials and speakers at least 2 weeks prior to your kickoff date.	Send out thank you notes and/or hold a thank you event to announce and celebrate results. Don't forget to thank anyone who helped coordinate the campaign.
Consider offering incentives for various levels of giving.	ALL YEAR
Develop a communications plan leading up to the campaign to educate, build enthusiasm, and inform your coworkers of key dates/goals.	Visit helplinecenter.org/volunteer-connection for volunteer opportunities.
Send out endorsement letters, videos or emails from your CEO and key leadership. Always include BAUW logos and links to our website.	Keep your employees educated about UW's work. Call us to arrange a lunch and learn, speaker, or bus tour. Follow us @sdbauw

Thank you for taking on this very important leadership role!

#UnitedWeWin

You're invited to join us on our bold journey; one that connects donors and resources to local nonprofits offering crucial programs.

Focused on the fundamentals for a good life -- health, education, and financial stability -- we invest donors' dollabors in quality programs that provide our community with access to the tools required to thrive. From promoting access to education and health care to ending food insecurity, we're strategic with our donors' dollars.

THREE QUICK REASONS

OUR COMMUNITY IMPACT TEAM of United

Way staff and Board of Directors has the expertise to identify and address our community's most critical needs. By funding 34 nonprofit partners and 49 programs and collaborating with community partners, we truly advance the common good and make a visible difference in the lives of our residents.

OUR COMMUNITY PARTNERS PROVIDE PROGRAMS THAT...

- Help those in crisis meet their most basic needs - food, shelter, clothing, safety.
- Prepare individuals and families to be selfsufficient and financially stable.
- Connect residents with available, affordable health and mental health services.

WE MAKE DONORS' DOLLARS MORE

IMPACTFUL by assessing our greatest community needs, creating collaborations, and promoting crucial conversations to create innovative solutions.

BROOKINGS AREA UNITED WAY IMPACT IN 2022:

34 funded partners with 49 programs funded

193 kids in Brookings County received $197,079 in dental care through the Delta Dental Mobile Program

Over 12,000 books were delivered to more than 1,000 kids through Dolly Parton's Imagination Library

214 individuals received mental health & suicide prevention training

372 potential lives were saved from 172 donors through blood drives

$2,208 saved on prescriptions through SingleCare

As a United Way Employee Campaign Coordinator (ECC), you play a key role in advancing the common good. With each pledge your coworkers make to United Way, you help to ensure academic success for children, financial stability for families and access to health care for all. As the ECC, for your organization's United Way campaign, you join a large force of dedicated volunteers committed to raising money and helping our community.

THANK YOU!
