EDNA & BOB NOLDAN NAMED MAY VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH

Brookings, SD - The Brookings Area United Way's Volunteer United program congratulates Edna & Bob Noldan on being named the May 2024 Volunteer of the Month, an area-wide award program sponsored by First Bank & Trust.

Edna and Bob Noldan exhibit an unwavering dedication and commitment to the Brookings Activity Center. "Over the past year, they have consistently gone above and beyond in their volunteer duties, contributing countless hours to ensure the smooth operation of the Center. As volunteers, they have demonstrated exceptional leadership qualities. Edna and Bob actively take on leadership roles within our organizations, providing guidance and support to fellow volunteers and staff members. Their willingness to step up and take charge has been instrumental in driving our initiatives forward", says Park and Recreation Director Kristin Zimmerman.

Edna and Bob are true team players, always willing to collaborate with others and contribute to the collective success of our organization. They foster a sense of camaraderie among volunteers and staff members, making everyone feel valued and appreciated. Their positive attitude and willingness to pitch in wherever needed make them an invaluable asset to our team.

In summary, Both Bob and Edna Noldan exemplify the qualities of an outstanding volunteer. Their dedication, leadership, and positive impact don't go unnoticed, and they are deserving of recognition as Volunteer of the Month. We are grateful for their contributions to the Brookings Activity Center and look forward to continuing to work alongside them serving our community.
