

Brookings Communities That Care (CTC)

Local community board working towards building positive futures for Brookings youth

What We Do:

- Use prevention science to promote healthy development and reduces risk factors for Brookings youth
- Utilize existing community resources to strengthen multi-sector collaborations and prevention efforts.
- Implement tested & effective prevention programs and policies into the Brookings community.

Scan to learn more

<https://brookingsunitedway.org/ctc/>

Brookings Area
UNITED WAY

Communities That Care (CTC)

Building positive futures for Brookings youth.

Community Board Orientation

January 30th | 8:00am - 4:30pm

Location: Brookings Health System

- Understand the CTC framework and its purpose.
- Dive into the prevention science that leads to healthier youth development and behavioral outcomes.
- Create a vision for youth prevention for the Brookings community.
- Organize and create action work groups and guide next steps for prevention efforts in Brookings.

Call Brookings Area United Way for questions or to register at 605-692-4979

Scan here to register!

